Genuine Humility, by Jennie Allen- We can all feign humility—we can say the right words or act a certain way. But what does genuine humility look like? Jennie Allen, author, speaker, Bible teacher, and Founder of the IF:Gathering, unpacks what it means to be truly humble.

Humility, Legacy and Leadership, by Don Soderquist- Strong leadership requires humility. The humble leader will honor the legacy of those who came before, encourage his people to succeed and respect the decisions of his peers. David Glass, retired Walmart CEO, and Don Soderquist, retired Walmart COO, share how they applied these leadership principles.

Humility of the Mind, by Mike Sharrett- Though the New Testament does not list humility as a fruit of the Spirit, it is undoubtedly evidence of a life transformed by Christ. All Christians, are called to humility, but to what degree does such a quality affect the mental health of a pastor in ministry? In this video created in cooperation with the Association of Biblical Counselors, Mike Sharrett, pastor with the Presbyterian Church of America, highlights the value of pursuing the mind of Christ.

Servant Leadership in the 21st Century, by Madana Kumar- In a world obsessed with power, status, and significance, Jesus' call to be a servant to those we lead sounds like a bizarre, impractical mandate. Going beyond the buzzword to the biblical roots, Madana Kumar explores the qualities that set Christ's model apart: humility, selflessness, and deep connections that seek to empower others. Calling us to shift from temporary greatness to eternal significance, this study highlights practical ways in which we can embrace our Savior's inverted leadership pyramid and wash the feet of those we lead.
