Some suggested Right Now Videos to view in response to this week's message:

You Matter More Than You Think, by Leslie Parrott- Does your life really matter? At any given time, women may be asking, "Does my life really matter?" Maybe you are stuck at a job that is not rewarding. Maybe you're with your kids all day and feel trapped in a routine. Maybe you're going through a divorce and trying to find your identity. Many women are afraid to open up and share their struggles because we look around and think that everyone else has it all together. In this video Bible study Leslie Parrott shares about her insecurities despite being a best-selling author, wife and mother of two sons. Leslie's on-screen teaching, the testimonies of other women plus the Bible study combine to communicate to women that even in the darkest of moments in life,
YOUR LIFE REALLY DOES MATTER.

You Can't Be Everything, by Lauren Chandler- Facebook, Pinterest and Instagram provide a great outlet for finding and sharing fun ideas, but they also provide a platform for competition. Lauren Chandler, worship leaders, wife and mother, exposes the lie that women need to live up to an online illusion of perfection.

Give Your Family a Purpose and a Plan, by Tricia Goyer- Being a parent is hard work! With all of the obligations of supporting and raising a family, sometimes it is easy to slip into maintenance mode, failing to be purposeful in the direction your family is heading. Mother, grandmother, and well-known author Tricia Goyer shares how identifying goals and making a plan to achieve those goals transformed her family.

Three Truths Every Mom Needs to Know, by Sherry Surratt-Do you ever feel like your life is one chore after another? You love and sacrifice for your family, and still may feel like you're missing the mark. Sherry Surratt, President of MOPS gives three truths that will encourage every mother.

Mother-Son Bonding, by Os Hillman- If a father and mother are not bonded to one another, the mother will often bond to the oldest son. This can happen as a result of an absent father, either physically or emotionally. If a wife is not getting her emotional needs met through her husband, she may attempt to draw this from her son. If the parenting style is weak in emotional validation, giving words of love, or shaming of the child, these combinations will eventually surface through problems in the marital relationship in adulthood. Mother-son bonding can impact marriages and individuals in a significant way. This session describes the impact of mother-son bonding.
