Embracing Your Response Ability

Based on Galatians 6:1-10

You are Embracing your Response Ability when you:

1. Help others _____ as you help _____ spiritually. (v.1)

2. Care for _____ in times of trouble as you care for _____. (v.2-8)

Come to me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. (Matthew 11:28)

3. _____ others _____. (v.9-10)

Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. (Ephesians 4:29)

Taco Stand – we will once again be running the Taco Stand at the Washington Town & Country Fair (August 4-8). You won't just be making tacos, you will be helping to build a house and change lives for generations! Sign up for your shifts in the lobby. Limited daily tickets are available for those who need one in order to serve in the taco stand – enjoy the fair before/after your shift(s).

NOTE: Volunteer parking passes are available in the conference room. For those who need one, fair passes for your day's shift are available. Add "pass" by your name and one will be set aside for you.

Crosstraining kicks off Wednesday, August 18 (6:30-8pm) in the Youth Room. For rising 7th & 8th graders, this special discipleship training (aka “Confirmation”) will enable you to claim your faith and articulate it in a way that others will just say “Wow” or “Cool”.
