Some suggested Right Now Videos to view in response to this week’s message:

10 Commandments, In the 20th chapter of the Book of Exodus, God gives humanity a revolutionary new way to live: The Ten Commandments. As God is building His nation, the nation of Israel, He calls Moses up to Mount Sinai, and ultimately gives him ten commands, which will guide, form, and shape His people for all of eternity. At the root of each command is an underlying invitation from God to a better life. The commands are intended to help us live the life that God intended for us to live, free from the consequences of sin while in a deep, personal relationship with God and others. The Ten Commandments are designed to help us live according to God’s plan for us. His idea of the commands was not to give us strict rules and take the fun out of life. They are guidelines to help keep us living in a right relationship with God and with other people. In this Life Group series explore and study a new commandment every week. This series will help you better understand how to live out each commandment as well as understand God’s heart behind each commandment.

Leadership from the Shepherd’s Perspective, by Holly Culhane- This series explores shepherding as a universal Godly leadership principle. Whether parenting, pastoring, partnering, managing, supervising, or working with volunteers, donors or Board members, the timeless responsibility of shepherding is essential to leading well and influencing effectively. Your personal experiences and digging into Scripture during these workshops help translate Biblical principles into practical application. In addition, the creation of a customized Shepherd’s Operating Manual transforms a conceptual theory into uniquely relevant behaviors where you live, work, volunteer, and lead. The shepherding model is illustrated in the Leader’s Shield and is grounded in the three pivotal elements of provision, protection, and presence. In fact, it is only when these three responsibilities are fully realized that one can truly live into their calling as leader!

The Holy Who, Brady Boyd- In this series, Pastor Brady Boyd explores our relationship with the Person, the Presence, and the Power of the Holy Spirit. We will learn to connect with the Holy Spirit, and how spiritual gifts shape our lives and communities.

Fill Everything With God’s Presence, by Jeff Vanderstelt- God works in the world through His people. Jeff Vanderstelt, the Lead Teaching Pastor of DoxaChurch in Bellevue, Washington, explains the importance of teaching believers to let Jesus transform every single aspect of their lives—and that includes their work.
