YOUR FIRST 50 DAYS WITH JESUS

Welcome to the New Start Discipleship Journey!

Congratulations on starting this walk with Jesus!

A “disciple” is a “learner,” a follower of Jesus. We don’t primarily learn in order to know things about Jesus, but we learn in order to ACT as Jesus would act. As disciples, we literally aim to become like Jesus in every way that we can.

Here’s what you’ll find on each day of this journey:

- A daily Bible reading designed to give you a great overview of the Bible in your first 50 days as a disciple of Jesus.
- A daily Meditation Question, something to mull over in the back of your mind as you go through your day.
- A daily journal space to write down your thoughts, things you’re thankful for, prayer needs, or questions.
- A daily link to an encouraging, short video that explains that day’s Bible reading. (No video is over 5 minutes.)

To give you an example: You can use your phone to scan this QR code, which will take you straight to an intro video to this book:

Or you can type in your browser:

A Big Success Hint

You need a mentor. Christianity is a team sport. It’s not a solo event. There’s just no place for a Lone Ranger style Christian life, where you single-handedly face every challenge and conquer every problem.

The truth is that if you want to succeed as a Christian, you need others who will walk with you. A mentor is someone more experienced and further along in their Christian walk than you are, who can be a voice of advice and encouragement as you walk with Jesus.

It could be a pastor, or someone at a local church. I'd encourage you to do this:

- Contact someone and ask if they would be a mentor for you.
- Ask if you can contact them regularly with questions about your faith.
- Set yourself a reminder or alarm on your phone, so being in contact with other Christians can become a habit.

This is so important, that you'll see regular reminders in the daily journal pages to contact your mentor... or to get one if you haven't already!

So how do you start forming this new habit of spending time growing your life with Jesus?

How to Start a New Quiet Time Habit

Decide when: I'd recommend mornings, but sometimes lunch break or your commute, or just before bed works better for some people. Find a time slot that attaches to something you already do... maybe head for work 15 minutes early, and sit in the parking lot for your quiet time.

Decide where: Distraction is the enemy of quiet time with God. You'll need a place that's relatively free from interruption & distraction. Shut off the TV or radio, put your phone on silent, take a deep breath, and prepare to just be with God.

Gather what you'll need: I'd recommend an NIV or ESV Study Bible (or something similar), a good pen, and this notebook.

Decide How: I'd encourage you to get alone, take a deep breath, smile, and say "Thanks, God for this chance to meet with You. Use Your Word to speak to me today. I'm ready to listen." Then, just dive in.

If you'll do this same habit daily, here's what you'll discover:

- It might be tough at first. Maybe you won't be sure what to say when you pray, or a Scripture won't make sense. That's OK. Just focus on what you do understand. It will get easier.
- It will grow your spiritual life and change you – sometimes slowly, sometimes quickly.
- You'll get the most out of it, if you actually use the tool. Write down something, even if it seems simple or basic.
- You're building new habits, some new superhighways in your brain for new thoughts about God to travel on. Enjoy!

I look forward to hearing how God's changing your life!
